Transfer to Grossenhain of the Tank Officers School in Friemerwald ALUATION PLACE OBTAINED 25X DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 17 April 1953 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TVPE) 25X REMARKS This is UNEVALUATED Information 25 The beavy weapons and special vehicles were transperred by train. The other equipment was hauled eavy on 42 trucks. Engineer vehicle guarters seden seden seden seden truck truck were identified. The installation in Grossenhain was vecent on 7 March. (F-6) 2. On 3 March, the KVPD in Grossenhain was ordered to transfer to Orenienburg. The unit, which numbered about 1,800 men at that time, was loaded with all weapons, equipment and vehicles during the following days. Those officers and EM that had relatives in West Ferlin had received reass generus shortly before the transfer of the unit. The sityments to Orenienburg went via Liebemwerda, Jueterbog, Nauen and Kramen. The betracks installation in Grossenhain was recoccupied by the tank officers school in Friemerwald which numbered about 1,000 men and brought along its tenks and other equipment. As the barracks installation in Orensenhurg which had been occupied by the Soviets was in bed condition the VFs were first semilowed for earlier was	,	Approved For Release 20	09/03/16 : CIA-RDP80-00810A001200470009-8
ALUATION PLACE OBTAINED DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 17 ipril 1953 25X REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. 2 TYPE) This is UNEVALUATED Information 25 This is UNEVALUATED Information 26 This is UNEVALUATED Information 26 The other equipment was halled every on 42 trucks. Engineer vehicle ensurantian mime mover tank truck head-with man boxes; two-exile armored scout cer and ambulance which man boxes; two-exile armored scout cer and which man boxes; two-exile armored scout cer and which man boxes; two-exile armored scout cer and were identified. The installation in Grossenhain was ordered to transfer to Oranienburg. The unit, which numbered about 1,200 men at that time, was loaded with all weapons, equipment and vehicles during the following days. Those officers and EM that had relatives in West Berlin had received reast generits shortly before the transfer of the unit. The shipments to Oranienburg went via Liebemverda, Jueterbog, Nauen and Kremmen. The betracks installation in Oronsenhain was reoccupied by the tank officers school in Priemervald which numbered about 1,000 men and brought along its tenks and other equipment. As the barrecks installation in Orensenburg which had been occupied by the Soviets was in hed condition the VFs were first semilowed for earlier was	_ /	Transfer to Oranienturg of	the KVPD in Grossenhein and	25 X 1
DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINED DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 17 April 1953 25X REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 TYPE) This is UNEVALUATED Information 25 REMARKS This is UNEVALUATED Information 25 This is UNEVALUATED Information 26 The other equipment was hauled every on 42 trucks. Engineer vehicle around then prover tenk truck with map boxes; two-axis armored scout cer and and ambulance with map boxes; two-axis armored scout cer and and ambulance were identified. The installation in Grossenhain was vecant on 7 March. (F-6) 1 2. On 3 March, the KVPD in Grossenhain was ordered to transfer to Oranienburg. The unit, which numbered about 1,300 men at that time, was loaded with all weapons, equipment and vehicles during the following days. Those officers and EM that had relatives in West Perlia had received reased gements shortly before the transfer of the unit. The shipments to Oranienburg went via Liebemwerda, Jueterbog, Nauen and Kreumen. The barracks installation in Grossenhain was reoccupied by the tank officers school in Friemerwald which numbered about 1,000 men and brought along its tenks and other equipment. As the barracks installation in Oranienburg which had been occupied by the Soviets was in ted condition the VPs were first semioured for clearing ment and condition the VPs were first semioured for clearing ment and condition the VPs were first semioured for clearing ment and condition the VPs were first semioured for clearing ment and condition the VPs were first semioured for clearing ment and condition the VPs were first semioured for clearing ment and condition the VPs were first semioured for clearing ment and condition the VPs were first semioured for clearing ment and condition the VPs were first semioured for clearing ment and condition the VPs were first semioured for clearing ment and condition the VPs were first semioured for clearing ment and condition and condition the VPs were first semioured for clearing ment and condition and condition the VPs were first semioured for cl	10/			Democratic and the second section of the second sec
DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 17 April 1953 25X REFERENCES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) 25X REMARKS This is UNEVALUATED Information 25 The other equipment was hauled away on 42 trucks. Engineer vehicle arountion must be a seen as see	ALUATION
DATE OBTAINED	DATE OF CON	TFNT		September September
PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) 25X REMARKS This is UNEVALUATED information 25 This is UNEVALUATED information 26 The other equipment was hauled evay on 42 trucks. Engineer vehicle armunition nrime mover tank truck heed-with map boxes; two-exis armored scout car and ambulance with map boxes; two-exis armored scout car and embulance were identified. The instellation in Grossenhain was vacant on 7 March. (F-6) 1 2. On 3 March, the KVPD in Grossenhain was ordered to transfer to Oranienburg. The unit, which numbered about 1,300 men at that time, was loaded with all weapons, equipment and vehicles during the following days. Those officers and EM that had relatives in West Perlin had received reass generats shortly before the transfer of the unit. The silpments to Oranienburg went via Liebenwerda, Jueterbog, Nauen and Kremenn. The barracks installation in Grossenhain was reoccupied by the tank officers school in Friemerwald which numbered about 1,000 men and brought along its tenks and other equipment. As the barracks installation in Oranienburg which had been occupied by the Soviets was in hed condition the VPs were first semious of for clearing went.		· .	DATE DOEDADED 17 April 1953	alian dilimatu makanjara dan dan yang dan 2000 m
This is UNEVALUATED Information 1. On 3 and 4 March 1953, the KVPD in Grossenhain was transferred to Oranienburg. The heavy weapons and special vehicles were transported by train. The other equipment was hauled away on 42 trucks. Engineer vehicle armunition mrime mover tank truck head-quarters sedan sedans with map boxes; two-axis armored scout car and ambulance vecant on 7 March. (F-6) 2. On 3 March, the KVPD in Grossenhain was ordered to transfer to Oranienburg. The unit, which numbered about 1,300 men at that time, was loaded with all weapons, equipment and vehicles during the following days. Those officers and EM that had relatives in West Perlin had received reass goments shortly before the transfer of the unit. The silpments to Oranienburg went via Liebenwerds, Jueterbog, Nauen and Kremmen. The berracks installation in Grossenhain was reoccupied by the tank officers school in Friemerwald which numbered about 1,000 men and brought along its tenks and other equipment. As the tarrecks installation in Oranienburg which had been occupied by the Soviets was in the docalition the VPs were first semilayed for clearing up.				 25 X 1
This is UNEVALUATED Information 1. On 3 and 4 March 1953, the KVPD in Grossenhain was transferred to Oraniemburg. The heavy weapons and special vehicles were transported by train. The other equipment was hauled away on 42 trucks. Engineer vehicle armunition nrime mover tank truck head-quarters sedan sedans tunes truck with map boxes; two-axis armored scout car and ambulance were identified. The installation in Grossenhain was vacant on 7 March. (F-6) 1 2. On 3 March, the KVPD in Grossenhain was ordered to transfer to Oranienburg. The unit, which numbered about 1,300 men at that time, was loaded with all weapons, equipment and vehicles during the following days. Those officers and EM that had relatives in West Ferlin had received reass genents shortly before the transfer of the unit. The snipments to Oranienburg went via Liebenwerds, Jueterbog, Nauen and Eremmen. The berracks installation in Grossenhain was reoccupied by the tank officers school in Friemerwald which numbered about 1,000 men and brought along its tenks and other equipment. As the barracks installation in Oranienburg which had been occupied by the Soviets was in hed condition the VPs were first employed for elearing up		9		reministrative day, in the paragraph points
This is UNEVALUATED Information 1. On 3 and 4 March 1953, the KVPD in Grossenhain was transferred to Oranienburg. The heavy weapons and special vehicles were transported by train. The other equipment was hauled evay on 42 trucks. Engineer vehicle armunition prime mover tank truck head-quarters seden sedens two-axis armored scout car and ambulance with man boxes; two-axis armored scout car and embulance were identified. The installation in Grossenhain was vacant on 7 March. (F-6) 1 2. On 3 March, the KVPD in Grossenhain was ordered to transfer to Oranienburg. The unit, which numbered about 1,300 men at that time, was loaded with all weapons, equipment and vehicles during the following days. Those officers and EM that had relatives in West Ferlin had received reassignments shortly before the transfer of the unit. The shipments to Oranienburg went via Liebenwerda, Jueterbog, Nauen and Kremmen. The berracks installation in Grossenhain was reoccupied by the tank officers school in Friemervald which numbered about 1,000 men and brought along its tenks and other equipment. As the barracks installation in Oranienburg which had been occupied by the Sovdets was in had condition the VPs were first symboyed for clearing up		ENOLUSURES (NO. & ITP	(C) especiments resolvativate lengths of interno-constructive pro-dust internoce, roots, included in plants in the pro-dust included in the pro-dust in the pro-dust included in the pro-dust included in the pro-dust in the p	25X1
1. On 3 and 4 March 1953, the KVPD in Grossenhain was transferred to Oranienburg. The heavy weapons and special vehicles were transported by train. The other equipment was hauled away on 42 trucks. Engineer vehicle armunition prime mover tank truck head-quarters sedan sedans truck head-ambulance were identified. The installation in Grossenhain was vacant on 7 March. (F-6) 1 2. On 3 March, the KVPD in Grossenhain was ordered to transfer to Oranienburg. The unit, which numbered about 1,300 men at that time, was loaded with all weapons, equipment and vehicles during the following days. Those officers and EM that had relatives in West Ferlin had received reassignments shortly before the transfer of the unit. The shipments to Oranienburg went via Liebenwerds, Jueterbog, Nauen and Kremmen. The berracks installation in Grossenhain was reoccupied by the tank officers school in Friemerwald which numbered about 1,000 men and brought along its tenks and other equipment. As the barracks installation in Oranienburg which had been occupied by the Soviets was in ted condition the VPs were first semloyed for clearing up	REMARKS			The emilion of the first control of the section of
1. On 3 and 4 March 1953, the KVPD in Grossenhain was transferred to Oranienburg. The heavy weapons and special vehicles were transported by train. The other equipment was hauled away on 42 trucks. Engineer vehicle armunition prime mover tank truck head-quarters sedan sedans truck head-ambulance were identified. The installation in Grossenhain was vacant on 7 March. (F-6) 1 2. On 3 March, the KVPD in Grossenhain was ordered to transfer to Oranienburg. The unit, which numbered about 1,300 men at that time, was loaded with all weapons, equipment and vehicles during the following days. Those officers and EM that had relatives in West Ferlin had received reassignments shortly before the transfer of the unit. The shipments to Oranienburg went via Liebenwerds, Jueterbog, Nauen and Kremmen. The berracks installation in Grossenhain was reoccupied by the tank officers school in Friemerwald which numbered about 1,000 men and brought along its tenks and other equipment. As the barracks installation in Oranienburg which had been occupied by the Soviets was in ted condition the VPs were first semloyed for clearing up	Notacyck for comment for 4 25 days as you at these compact is under	This is I	INEVALUATED Information	officers the controlled and the controlled associated to the controlled associated associ
1. On 3 and 4 March 1953, the KVPD in Grossenhain was transferred to Oranienburg. The heavy weapons and special vehicles were transported by train. The other equipment was hauled away on 42 trucks. Engineer vehicle armunition prime mover tank truck head-quarters seden sedens truck head—with map boxes; two-axis armored scout car and ambulance were identified. The installation in Grossenhain was vacant on 7 March. (F-6) 1 2. On 3 March, the KVPD in Grossenhain was ordered to transfer to Oranienburg. The unit, which numbered about 1,300 men at that time, was loaded with all weapons, equipment and vehicles during the following days. Those officers and EM that had relatives in West Ferlin had received reassignments shortly before the transfer of the unit. The shipments to Oranienburg went via Liebenwerda, Jueterbog, Nauen and Kremmen. The berracks installation in Grossenhain was reoccupied by the tank officers school in Priemerwald which numbered about 1,000 men and brought along its tenks and other equipment. As the barracks installation in Oranienburg which had been occupied by the Soviets was in bed condition the VPs were first symbowed for clearing we		TIII I I O		O F N A
The other equipment was hauled away on 42 trucks. Engineer vehicle armunition prime mover tank truck head—quarters seden sedens truck with map boxes; two-axis armored scout car and ambulance were identified. The installation in Grossenhain was vacant on 7 March. (F-6) 1 2. On 3 March, the KVPD in Grossenhain was ordered to transfer to Oranienburg. The unit, which numbered about 1,300 men at that time, was loaded with all weapons, equipment and vehicles during the following days. Those officers and EM that had relatives in West Ferlin had received reassignments shortly before the transfer of the unit. The shipments to Oranienburg went via Liebenwerda, Jueterbog, Nauen and Kremmen. The barracks installation in Grossenhain was reoccupied by the tank officers school in Priemerwald which numbered about 1,000 men and brought along its tenks and other equipment. As the barracks installation in Oranienburg which had been occupied by the Soviets was in bad condition the VPs were first employed for clearing up	•	· 		25 X 1 weapons, equipment and vehicles during the following days. Those officers and EM that had relatives in West Perlin had received reassignments shortly before the transfer of the unit. The shipments to Oranienburg went via Liebenwerda, Jueterbog, Nauen and Kremmen. The barracks installation in Grossenhain was reoccupied by the tank officers school in Priemerwald which numbered about 1,000 men and brought along its tenks and other equipment. As the barracks installation in Oranienburg which had been occupied by the Soviets was in had condition the VPs were first suployed for clearing up	•	quarters sedan quarters sedan with map boxe ambulance	auled away on 42 trucks. Engineer vehicle to mover tank truck sections truck	25X1 e ad-
no potatoes had arrived prior to 31 March. 2 1. Comment. The transfer of the KVPD in Grossenhair was not completed	2.			25X on 7 March. VP trains going from Grossenhain to Oranienburg were observed up to 22 March. 2. Comment. The transfer to Oranienburg of the KVPD in Grossenhain is now considered confirmed. Records on transportation have already indicated the transfer to Grossenhain of the tank officers school in Priemerweld.	1.	weapons, equipment and vel and EM that had relatives before the transfer of the Liebenwerda, Jueterbog, No Crossenhain was reoccupied numbered about 1,000 men a As the barracks installati Soviets was in had conditi work. Food ration supplied no potatoes had arrived pro-	rossenhain was ordered to transfer to Oranienbe about 1,800 men at that time, was loaded with a hicles during the following days. Those office in West Perlin had received reassignments show a unit. The shipments to Oranienburg went via a uen and Kremmen. The barracks installation in d by the tank officers school in Priemerwald when d brought along its tenks and other squipment ion in Oranienburg which had been occupied by the tank officers in the VPs were first employed for clearing up so for the VPs were insufficient in Oranienburg rior to 31 March. 2	was urg. all ers rtly n hich t. the p z, e.g.

CLASSIFICATION SECRET,